

TABLE OF CONTENTS

of the ministry of

J N Darby, J B Stoney, F E Raven and J Taylor

INTRODUCTION

This booklet is intended to complement the Catalogue issued by Kingston Bible Trust. In the interests of brevity the Catalogue gives the customer no details of the contents of the volumes of ministry by J N Darby, J B Stoney, F E Raven, or J Taylor. The contents of the volumes of ministry by C A Coates are thought to be sufficiently described in the Catalogue.

Whilst this lack of information may not trouble many of our long-established customers unduly, the Trustees believe that many customers would be considerably helped by knowing in more detail both what is available, and what they are ordering. It is hoped that this booklet will meet those needs, and also assist those who are looking for specific items.

The reader should note that, in the case of the ministry by J N Darby, there is a very comprehensive list of contents (far fuller than in this booklet), of all the volumes in the Collected Writings, Notes and Comments, and Notes and Jottings in the Index to JND's works published by Kingston Bible Trust.

MINISTRY BY J N DARBY

1. Synopsis of the Books of the Bible

The intention of the writer of the Synopsis was to assist the reader of Scripture to find profit in seizing on the scope and connection of what is contained in Scripture. Further, the intention was to make the Word divinely precious to every reader. The volumes of the Synopsis are:

Volume 1 – Genesis–2 Chronicles

Volume 2 – Ezra–Malachi

Volume 3 – Matthew–John

Volume 4 – Acts–Philippians

Volume 5 – Colossians–Revelation

2. The Collected Writings

Due to a most unfortunate decision when they were first published, the volumes have two different systems of numbering. They are classified by subject matter (in which order they will be described here), but each volume also has a separate number (1–34), which bears no relation to the subject classification. The latter number is given in brackets below. The Collected Writings include the greater part of JND’s main writings and ministry, although there is a good deal else in articles in periodicals. Additional to the Collected Writings are Notes and Comments, and Notes and Jottings (see later).

The various subject headings are as follows:

Apologetic (1, 2)

Apologetic 1 (Vol. 6) – almost the whole book is a reply by JND (which he entitles ‘The Irrationalism of Infidelity’) to a work by F W Newman – ‘Phases of Faith.’

Apologetic 2 (Vol. 9) – contains imaginary dialogues on aspects of Christian truth and the teachings of Scripture, over against modern theology, philosophy and worldly education.

Critical 1 (Vol. 13) – contains a wide range of detail on points of difficulty and interest in the translation of the Scriptures, and long sections on Greek articles, prepositions etc. It also contains notes on the heads of the Psalms; and notes on various other Scriptures.

Doctrinal (1–9)

These volumes cover a wide range of questions of doctrine, both true doctrine as supported by Scripture, and that held by many of the sects in christendom.

Doctrinal 1 (Vol. 3) – deals with the doctrine of the church of England at the time of the Reformation; the doctrine of the Wesleyans; and the place of the Holy Spirit in the believer and in the church.

Doctrinal 2 (Vol. 7) – considers the doctrine of eternal punishment; the truth of atonement; the righteousness of God; and contains one of JND’s most important papers on ‘The Sufferings of Christ;’ and another on ‘A man in Christ.’

Doctrinal 3 (Vol. 10) – covers a variety of topics – law; righteousness; new birth; repentance; the coming and presence of the Comforter; the coming of Christ and His intercession; peace; immortality of the soul; reconciliation etc.

Doctrinal 4 (Vol. 15) – is largely concerned with JND’s conflict with B W Newton’s teachings as to the Person and sufferings of Christ. It also contains the ‘Bethesda Circular.’

Doctrinal 5 (Vol. 18) – is entirely concerned with the doctrines of Romanism; and includes the start of the helpful ‘Familiar Conversations on Romanism’ – dialogues on the doctrines of the Romish church.

Doctrinal 6 (Vol. 22) – continues with the Conversations from Vol. 5.

Doctrinal 7 (Vol. 23) – contains a series of short pieces on the practical doctrines of Scripture; and some notes on some of Paul’s epistles.

Doctrinal 8 (Vol. 29) – continues the Conversations from Vol. 6; and discusses revelation; atonement; propitiation and substitution; death to nature, etc.

Doctrinal 9 (Vol. 31) – continues the Conversations from Vol. 8, and contains a variety of short papers on practical matters of doctrine.

Ecclesiastical (1–4)

These volumes set out JND’s understanding of church principles. They also contain some lengthy criticisms of works published by church leaders of the day.

Ecclesiastical 1 (Vol. 1) – contains some very important papers setting out JND’s exercises in leaving the established church, and the ground of gathering for all true believers.

Ecclesiastical 2 (Vol. 4) – deals entirely with the writings of other churchmen.

Ecclesiastical 3 (Vol. 14) – deals with the true character of the church, the house of God, the body of Christ. It has further comments on the works of other religious leaders.

Ecclesiastical 4 (Vol. 20) – deals at length with the conflict over Plymouth and Bethesda.

Evangelic 1 (Vol. 12) and 2 (Vol. 21)

These two volumes are perhaps the simplest of all JND's writings to understand and contain some very precious gospel truths.

Expository (1–7)

These volumes do not, of course, duplicate the Synopsis. They rather bring out the teaching and application of the Scripture. Generally, for the Old Testament there is not a complete and systematic coverage of whole books, but a collection of articles on specific matters. In the New Testament there is generally a complete coverage of the books, and comments on other specific points.

Expository 1 (Vol. 19) – Genesis–2 Samuel.

Expository 2 (Vol. 30) – 1 Kings–Matthew.

Expository 3 (Vol. 24) – Matthew–Mark.

Expository 4 (Vol. 25) – Luke–Acts.

Expository 5 (Vol. 26) – Romans–2 Corinthians.

Expository 6 (Vol. 27) – Galatians–Hebrews.

Expository 7 (Vol. 28) – Hebrews–Revelation.

Miscellaneous (1–3)

Miscellaneous 1 (Vol. 32) – contains a wide variety of papers on matters of truth and various scriptures. It also includes 'The Faith Once Delivered to the Saints.'

Miscellaneous 2 (Vol. 33) – contains more practical papers on the truth, and on various scriptures.

Miscellaneous 3 (Vol. 34) – continues on the same lines as the other two volumes. Also contains 'An Introduction to the Bible.'

Practical (1, 2)

Practical 1 (Vol. 16) – contains a wide range of brief articles giving practical help in Christian experience.

Practical 2 (Vol. 17) – as Practical 1, and includes 'Practical Reflections on the Psalms.'

Prophetic (1–4)

Prophetic 1 (Vol. 2) – in addition to some short articles on prophetic subjects, contains 'Notes on the Revelation,' and 'The Hopes of the Church of God.'

Prophetic 2 (Vol. 5) – covers the books of Revelation and Daniel.

Prophetic 3 (Vol. 8) – is largely concerned with an examination of a work by B W Newton, entitled 'Thoughts on the Apocalypse.'

Prophetic 4 (Vol. 11) – contains a discussion of Daniel and Revelation; and six lectures on the second coming of Christ.

3. Notes and Comments (1–7)

These volumes are derived from notebooks and papers found by JND's executors. They were not revised by the author and were not originally intended for publication. Volumes 1 and 2 contain a wide range of short articles on various Scriptures and Scriptural subjects. Volume 3 includes a long section on the Psalms. Volume 4 covers the Major and Minor Prophets. Volume 5 has extended sections on Matthew and Mark, and something on John's ministry. Volume 6 continues with Mark and has a long section on Luke. Volume 7 is entirely on John's gospel.

4. Notes and Jottings

These are said to be derived from various meetings with J N Darby. They include readings and addresses on various Scriptures, and notes, jottings and fragments.

5. Letters of JND (1–3)

Volume 1 – contains letters dated from 1832 to 1868.

Volume 2 – contains letters dated from 1868 to 1879.

Volume 3 – contains letters dated from 1879 to 1882; an appendix containing letters from the early days until 1881; and an index.

6. Booklets, Pamphlets etc.

These further items are sufficiently described in the Catalogue (pp. 4, 5).

MINISTRY OF J TAYLOR

1. New Series (1–100)

These volumes include the material from the previously published Old Series (Volumes 1–212), except the addresses in the Old Series by brothers other than JT. A selection of these addresses is available in Selected Addresses, Volumes 1–3 (see p. 7 of the Catalogue).

In the list of contents below, the titles of ministry; place and date given (if known); and Old Series volume number (in brackets) are given in upright type. Material that was not in the Old Series is entered in italic type. For the most part, volumes 1–89 include some previously published material; the last 11 volumes consist entirely of material not previously published, although some of it dates back to the early years of JT's ministry.

Generally the numbering of the volumes is in chronological order, but there are a few exceptions to this in cases where articles on a particular subject have been grouped together; or in the later volumes of the series where much earlier ministry has been included.

Volume 1 – Readings/Addresses, 1896–1904; Notes of Meetings, Woodstock, Ontario, 1904; Readings/Addresses, Chicago, 1904–1905 (Vol. 1); Readings on Hebrews, New York, 1906 (Vol. 2); Readings on Exodus, New York, 1906 (Vol. 3); Redemption and Life, New York, 1907 (Vol. 4).

Conclusion

It is hoped that this list will be helpful to prospective purchasers of ministry. In addition to the reference above to the detailed list of contents that can be found in the Index to J N Darby's works, the reader is reminded that the Indexes to all these ministries could be used to find which volumes refer to specific subjects.
